Employment opportunities:

1. Graduation allows one to obtain a license to practice nursing in Poland and other EU countries.
2. It enables getting employed in children's clinics, in teaching and educational institutions, in clinics and healthcare industry,
3. It enables getting employed in hospital wards, spa hospitals, sanatoria, specialist clinics, emergency medical service, nursing homes and health-care institutions.

POPE JOHN PAUL II STATE SCHOOL
OF HIGHER EDUCATION IN BIAŁA PODLASKA

NURSING

ul. Sidorska 95/97, 21-500 Biała Podlaska
tel. +48 83 344 99 30, e-mail: rekrutacja@pswbp.pl

ADMISSION

Candidates applying for admission to the first year of study are required to register on www.pswbp.pl (the IRK system), and submit documents within the prescribed period to the Dean's office after being qualified.

INTERNET REGISTRATION AVAILABLE FROM APRIL 2017

John Paul II State School of Higher Education in Biała Podlaska has won the title of the best school in the country in its category.

www.pswbp.pl

- Studying Nursing in John Paul II State School of Higher Education in Biała Podlaska complies with the requirements of Directive 2005/36 / EC of the European Parliament and the Council of Europe from 7 September 2005 on the recognition of professional qualifications (OJ EU. L.05.255.22 as amended) .
- The educational standards comply with the Regulation of the Minister of Science and Higher Education dated May 9, 2012 on education standards for the following fields of study: medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, nursing and midwifery (OJ item. 631, as amended).
- The programme includes 4,720 hours of theoretical and clinical training.
- John Paul II State School of Higher Education in Biała Podlaska implements the directives of the Bologna Process in the field of Nursing:

  The Bachelor study programme lasting 3.5 years (7 semesters) allows you to obtain the degree of Bachelor of Nursing,

  The Master study programme lasting 2 years (4 semesters) leads to the professional master degree in Nursing.
- The studies ensure comparability in the educational standards between the EU degrees and institutions. Students receive credits for completing each semester, which allows them to continue studies in other universities in Europe under the Erasmus programme.
- The Nursing programme has received a positive assessment of the Polish Accreditation Committee and the National Council for Accreditation of Schools of Nurses and Midwives.
- Students of Nursing can develop their scientific potential through an active participation in scientific clubs, conducting their research, writing articles and publishing them in nursing journals as well as presenting their findings at symposia and conferences.

Why study Nursing in John Paul II State School of Higher Education in Biała Podlaska

- finishing the programme allows for getting profession qualifications related to health promotion, prevention and educational activities, treatment, rehabilitation and care, which comply with the requirements of the World Health Organization (WHO)
- well-equipped laboratories enable practicing nursing skills and nursing procedures in simulated conditions,
- classes are held in buildings having a modern didactic base,
- practical training and apprenticeships are held in the institutions having cooperation agreements,
- the School employs professional lecturers
- the School offers rooms in its own dormitory.