INTERNATIONAL ACADEMIC PROGRAM

The Catholic University of Ávila, Spain

The Catholic University of Ávila (UCAVILA) is located an hour from Madrid and Salamanca in the mountains of Central Spain.

UCAVILA is committed to providing an enriching educational environment where students can learn, study and prepare for their professional careers. Small classes are the center piece of learning at UCAVILA which allows professors to give individualized attention to each student in order to meet their educational and professional needs.

The quality of the university is evident in its research work, investigation and continual investment in new technologies so that students are prepared to meet the needs of present and future challenges that they will confront in their professional lives.
