Pope John Paul II State School Of Higher Education in Biała Podlaska was founded on August 1, 2000 and initially it had 345 students pursuing 4 specializations. Today it boasts over 3500 students in 19 fields of study and over 40 specializations. Most of them are enrolled in Bachelor programmes, however there are 6 Master level programmes. Since 2013 there has been changes in University structure – Department of Economics and Technical Sciences, and Department of Health and Social Sciences have been established.

Within its 20 years of its existence PSW has granted itself a high position among other Polish colleges of higher vocational education. Currently, PSW is on the 1st place in Poland in a nationwide ranking of colleges by "Perspektywy and Rzeczpospolita" – national opinion-making magazines in Poland.

We are committed to providing high quality university education, initiating academic research and supporting the development and growth of our region and becoming a cultural center in Biała Podlaska.
